PRECIOUS POST

By Jacob

As part of the Year of Outback Tourism Government focus, the Department of Education is encouraging Ekka visitors to connect with schools, teachers and students in remote communities by sending them a postcard.

The Department of Education display has a digital gallery of school Instagram photos to show, on a big screen, what schools have done.

There is also an activity centre where school groups and individual students can send a postcard from the Ekka to a class or school anywhere in Queensland.

Information is available for teachers who might want to go and teach in the outback.

The Department of Education display can be found in the Government Section in the Channel 7 Pavilion.
