YOUNG SLEUTHS SOLVE MYSTERY

By Isaac and Aahan

The Junior Detectives program which helps kids to feel safe and comfortable around police officers is solving a mystery at the Ekka.

Children need to collect their Junior Detectives Kit containing a map with clues, the mystery story, a pen and a badge. They need to find clues that are hidden throughout the Government Precinct and help solve the mystery of 'Who stole Rebecca from the Ekka'.

The mystery story has missing words which need to be found using the clues.

When the story is completed they hand it to the Police on the service counter and it is entered into a prize draw for an iPad, a Nintendo or a Navig8R Drone.

"The purpose of this program is to let the kids know that police officers aren't scary, and they can talk to police officers anytime," Susan, one of the local police officers, said.
