WINNING WOODCHOPPERS

By Brandt and Jacob

Craig Wagner and his son Bryan won the Father and Son 250mm Combination relay Handicap, held at the Iron Jack Woodchop Arena on Sunday, August 11.

The pair took the First Place Banner after Craig completed the Underhand Chop, followed by Bryan who finished with the Standing Block.

Craig Wagner started woodchopping at the age of 23 and Bryan started when he was six years old.

"I started the sport by just going around with Dad, helping him out by chopping some wood," Bryan said.

The Father Son Competition isn't the only event in which they compete.

Byran also won the Tree Felling event and Craig competed in the Over 60 Underhand Chop.

These men love the sport so much, they travel to competitions around Australia and New Zealand.

A spectator said that he loved the woodchopping and makes a point of seeing it at the Ekka every year.

Events at the Ekka are held daily from 9:00am to to 6:30pm.
