SUP-PAW-TING THE VISION IMPAIRED

Ms Rebecca McCormack at one of their many donation points

The Guide Dogs Queensland Stall, at the Black Hawk Dog Pavilion, is raising funds for vision impaired people.

A Guide Dogs ambassador, Ms Rebecca McCormack said: "We exist to support those with vision impairment so that they can live with freedom, mobility and independence".

A range of merchandise, including toy dogs, pens and hats, is available with all proceeds going towards helping people with vision impairments.

Over 90 per cent of funds raised comes from the community and goes towards breeding, raising and training the guide dogs.

Guide Dogs Queensland are based at Bald Hills, and are approaching their 60 year anniversary of serving the community.

If Ekka visitors are interested in donating to Guide Dogs Queensland or purchasing merchandise, stopover at their Stall, open from 9:30am to 4:30pm daily.
